Dear user, we'll have a better understanding if you could provide us more details via the in-app feedback system, such as screenshots or screen recordings of the issues. We will check and revert to you as soon as possible. Thank you. Paid my hard earned money for VPN MASTERPRO APP. Yes the paid version with optimum features and all the fastest servers to choose from etc. A couple of weeks later the App was removed from the store so I download VPN MASTER and for the optimum features I have to buy/pay the price of the App again in a yearly subscription. I thought stuff that I'll download my PRO app from my purchases again. Go to setup up and it's only got half a dozen servers with one bar (useless). Forcing you to buy it again/pay for premium features through subscription!! If only one developer was behind this practise you could excuse Apple and blame the developer but it is now widely spread across many Apps which shows you that Apple is on board with the scam because it's more sales isn't it? Whether it's purposely slowing down your iPhone to make you buy another one or the App Store Scam, Apple has crossed the line on so many levels and will wonder why all their faithful/loyal customers since day dot are leaving them in droves. I'll be definitely getting a Pixel 3 and changing over all my Apple computers as soon as Google enters that market. Not happy Jan!! we are sorry for your problem,every order will have a renewal automatically ,please pay attention to it. And we don't have right to cancel or apply for a refund for IOS users,please contact with Apple's official customer service to talk about it. thanks. If you have any question or suggestion, feel free to contact us (masterappfeedback@gmail.com It's a good app and it worked really well until one day when an add came up for me I pressed the x button to get rid of it and it wouldn't get off the page. I would double click my home button, swipe up the app and try again but that ad would still be there. It's also always one particular ad that says "test the speed of your wifi" or something along the lines of that. I'm currently trying to re-install it to see if that will help Hi user, thanks for letting us know about your recent experience with our app. Your feedback has been transferred to our relevant department and we will make adjustments to the Ads. If you have any other suggestions, contact us without hesitation. Thank you for your support and wish you have a great day! Pengembang.
